

Experienced. Dedicated. Trial Lawyers.

Representing Victims of Catastrophic Injury and Wrongful Death

What distinguishes Passen Law Group from other law firms is the quality of our attorneys and dedicated staff, as well as the personal attention we provide our clients. We pride ourselves in ensuring that each case receives the attention it deserves. And we spend a substantial amount of time with our clients and their families to gain a true appreciation for what they have endured. This approach has resulted in record verdicts and settlements for our clients.

Passen Law Group is a boutique personal injury law firm representing individuals and families in wrongful death cases involving:

- Motor Vehicle Negligence
- Brain Injury
- Medical Malpractice
- Birth Injury
- Trucking Negligence
- Premises Liability
- Construction Negligence
- Aviation
- Product Liability

Passen Law Group was established by Stephen M. Passen, an attorney with over 30 years of experience exclusively handling complex personal injury cases in Illinois and nationwide. In Mr. Passen's most recent high-profile jury trial, he obtained a jury verdict in excess of $19 million for a nine-year-old child who suffered a severe traumatic brain injury at his private school in Chicago. The verdict was recognized as one of the Top 100 Verdicts by the National Law Journal. Mr. Passen also recently secured a $15 million settlement on behalf of a family involved in a catastrophic trucking accident.

Matthew A. Passen joined Passen Law Group after working as an associate in the litigation department of Jenner & Block LLP. Not only is he dedicated to serving his clients, but he is also an active participant in the legal community. He is an Officer with the Chicago Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section, and is currently serving a two-year term as Co-Editor in Chief of the YLS Journal. He serves on the Chicago Bar Foundation's Young Professionals Board and Legal Assistance Foundation of Metropolitan Chicago's Young Professionals Board. Mr. Passen also serves on the Board of Directors of the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Greater Chicago.
